~ ISSUE 1 ~
april 2013

Hello!!

Thank you all for signing up to receive updates and news of our new venture. As many of our friends and family know, opening a restaurant has long since been on the agenda for us, now this dream is quickly becoming an exciting reality!

we found a home

After months of ups and downs and a whole bunch of groundwork, we have finally found our home. We searched high and low, far and wide (even thought of going North!) and then we found it... the area, the building, the people, it was all just right!

We are proud to announce that Parc will be opening at Oslo Buildings, 392 - 400 Esther Roberts Road, Glenwood during May 2013.

For those of you who aren't familiar with this area of Durbs, it is one of our city's oldest suburbs, one to which we have close ties.

sawdust, sweat and cement

We are sleep deprived (not that we could sleep due to excitement) burning the candle at both ends to make sure that we are ready and steaming ahead by the time we open our doors to you. From an empty shell of a shop, walls have gone up and tiles have been hung. Every day our imagination is becoming tactile.

Today we started to build our coffee bar; this involved much masking tape, graph paper, pencil marks and surely some visible grey hair! We can't wait to pour our first cup at Parc.

So here's to our new home, we are looking forward to sharing many great meals awesome cups of coffee and the opportunity to say to you soon...welcome back.

If you missed it, we got our first mention in The Mercury, Food & Wine supplement of 27 March 2013. Read it at http://www.parc-cafe.co.za/media/parc\_cafe\_media\_001.pdf

Until next time ☺
